

Update:

On September 27, 2022, the Fricker Build Committee had a chance to tour the construction progress. The Committee was introduced to the site supervisor overseeing the work, who provided a thorough look at the design plans, ongoing construction work, and the next steps planned in the building season. The Committee is pleased to note the project is still proceeding on schedule.

Given that the current trustee term is ending shortly, is it recommended